Bill Bryson's

Notes from a Small Island

Adapted by Tim Whitnall

Based on the Sunday Times best selling book!

Maskers bring to life the travels of author Bill Bryson as he lives and works in Britain. Arriving in Dover in 1973 Bryson arrived in Britain from Des Moines, Iowa, with no idea what to expect, and quickly discovered it wasn't so bad, really.

Reflecting back on his travels, we encounter many of the people he met, and they highlight the joys and quirks of our funny little island. From formidable bed and breakfast proprietors to Tube station buskers, the bobby on the beat to trainspotters, tour guides and drinkers in a Glaswegian pub, these characters guide Bryson the length and breadth of the country, as he navigates not only the oddities of his new home, but also the ups and downs of life.

As he travels, he starts to realise something strange
- can he really be starting to feel at home?

A warm welcome and licensed bar awaits you at our easy-to-find Studio Theatre.

Stair-lift and disabled toilet facilities available.

There is no parking at the theatre but plenty of local car parks are available off Shirley High Street (no charge after 6pm).
