OLD TIMES

Our last production at the Bassett is the product of one of the major talents working in the theatre today. "Old Times" shows us a man and his wife and their mysterious visitor. A trio with an obsessive, even destructive, concern for the past. Set at night in a converted farmhouse, in Autumn, the play reveals the uncertainties of memory and results in a masterpiece of quiet humour and tension.

The play is in two Acts with an interval of twenty minutes, when refreshments will be available in the Bassett.

ERRORS

- "THE COMEDY OF ERRORS"
by William Shakespeare

Involved in this everyday story of Ephesus folk are, wilful wives, harassed husbands, womanising wayfarers, beaten slaves, amorous maids, loose women, tight merchants, a nun, a jailer and an exorcist.

Although lacking in purple passages of poetic prose, Shakespeare more than compensates for this by using not one, but two sets of twin brothers in a riotous recipe of comic confusion that has kept audiences laughing for nearly four hundred years!!
