A Christmas Charivari

An Entertaining Concoction of Seasonal Fare

Devised and Directed

by Philip de Grouchy

Presented at The Maskers Studio Theatre 7th to 15th December 2012

A Christmas Charivari

A note from the Director

I have directed and taken part in several Christmas shows over the years. It's always a pleasure to gather together a group of talented performers to entertain with seasonal words and music for our friends, old and new.

Why 'Charivari', I have been asked? Defined as a 'collection or series of pieces – thoughtful, serious, comical, provoking, irritating, but above all entertaining', it seems a most suitable epithet for a Maskers Christmas Show! I am sure you will enjoy tonight's performance and I wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Philip de Grouchy

There is an interval of 20 minutes, during which the bar will be open in the clubroom.

Sandy Orba 1944-2012

We would like to pay tribute to Sandy Orba, who over many years contributed his delightful flute 'interludes' and his unfailing good humour to many of our Christmas shows, often supported by his wife Jean and his daughter Jessica. Our entertainments are much the poorer without his presence. Sandy died suddenly last July after a short illness

At the beginning of the second half please join in with the players and sing the chorus!
