

The Maskers Theatre Company present

Things are gettin' mighty messy in Mississippi...

CRIMES OF THE HEART

The Pulitzer prize-winning black comedy by Beth Henley

Directed by Sarah-Jayne Wareham

26 FEBRUARY – 2 MARCH 2013

THE NUFFIELD THEATRE

University Road, Southampton SO17 1TR

Tickets £12, Concessions £10, Students £6 • 2-for-1 on Tuesday • Group concessions

Box office: 023 8067 1771 www.nuffieldtheatre.co.uk

Crimes of the Heart

By Beth Henley

26th February – 2nd March 2013

This touching and hilarious play tells the story of the dysfunctional Magrath sisters from Mississippi.

Lenny, the eldest has just turned thirty and is still unmarried; Meg is back after a failed singing career; whilst the youngest, Babe is out on bail having shot her husband....because she didn't like his looks! Their troubles are highlighted by priggish cousin Chick and the earnest lawyer who falls for Babe whilst trying to keep her out of jail. This heart warming Pulitzer-winning play follows the sisters as they try to escape the past and seize the future.

TICKETS

£12 (Concessions £10, Students £6)

First Night Special – Tuesday 26th February: 2 for 1 Offer

Group Bookings:

10% off 8 or more full price tickets Wednesday - Saturday

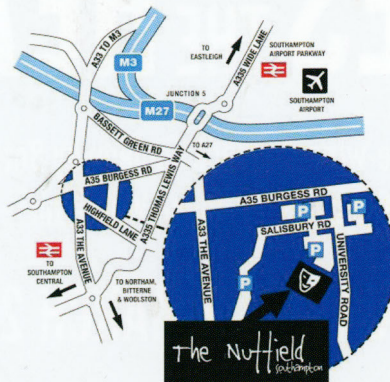

20% off 8 or more concession tickets Thursday and Friday only

BOOKING

NUFFIELD THEATRE BOX OFFICE: 023 80671771

Online at www.nuffieldtheatre.co.uk

Note: concession prices and 2 for 1 offer are not available online

Would you like to receive details of future Maskers productions?

If so, please ask for your details to be shared with other arts organisations when booking your tickets

For more information about upcoming Maskers productions visit maskers.org.uk

Follow The Maskers on Facebook & Twitter

