The Jungle Book

Adapted by Stuart Paterson Directed by Meri Mackney

Wednesday 15 - Saturday 25 July 2015

At 7.45pm

Matinées Saturday 18th and Sunday 19th July at 3pm

Deep in the jungle, something stirs.....

In the jungle, baby Mowgli grows protected by wolves, a bear and a panther. But, as he approaches manhood he has to face the terrifying man-eating tiger, Shere Khan, and decide whether his future lies in the jungle, in the village or in the tiger's mouth! This adaptation of Kipling's much-loved story definitely isn't Disney but includes a host of familiar characters from mischievous monkeys to the loveable Baloo. This play, set within the beautiful gardens and terraces of Hamptworth Lodge, will appeal to adults and children alike – so come early, pack a picnic and look forward to a thrilling open-air experience.
