Maskers Studio Theatre

Be prepared for this year's Christmas Anthology with a difference...

It is December 1940, we are in the local pub and the owner and staff are feeling pretty miserable, what with the Blitz and rationing, when some unexpected guests arrive, and the mood changes!

You are invited to join us and travel back in time, experience what they feel and how they cope with their troubles and their surprises. Be part of this special Christmas Celebration... you could even come dressed in 1940s style (not essential) and add to the atmosphere!

2 - 6 February

Nuffield Theatre
Southampton

A hilariously funny insight into the internal wrangling of life on a committee in 1970s regional England by master of comedy, Sir Alan Ayckbourn.

Join the fun as Pendon plan their historic town pageant. It's war in the corridors of small town England!

Help us save the environment and over £1000 in postage.
