

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS

Based on the book by Jules Verne and adapted for the stage by Laura Eason

Directed by Paul Green

When the gentlemen at the Reform Club claim it is impossible to travel around the world in just 80 days, Phileas Fogg wagers £20,000 that it can be done. With his eager and loyal manservant, Passepartout, at his side Phileas Fogg sets off on an adventure that will see him encounter pompous officials, rescue a woman from human sacrifice and brave a bandit attack, all to prove his point.

Unbeknownst to Fogg, he is also being tailed by Inspector Fix of Scotland Yard who suspects him of being the master criminal who broke into the Bank of England. With Fix looking to thwart the journey and ever shorter deadlines, how can Fogg possibly complete his journey in only 80 days?

Come and join Fogg and Passepartout on an adventure full of thrills, laughs, danger and intrigue, which will take you to Bombay, Hong Kong, San Francisco and more... without even having to leave your seat!
