TWELFTH NIGHT

If Music be the Food of Love, Play On!

One of William Shakespeare's finest and best loved comedies set in a 1980s' 'New Romantic' style.

Twelfth Night's classic love triangle will both enchant and amuse you.

It centres on the twins, Viola and Sebastian, who are separated in a shipwreck. Viola, disguised as Cesario, falls in love with Duke Orsino, who in turn is in love with the Countess Olivia. Upon meeting Viola, Countess Olivia falls in love with her, thinking she is a man. Clear so far? With a cornucopia of cross dressing, mistaken identity, musical interludes and riotous subplots, Twelfth Night is guaranteed to tickle your funny bone. Fear not for, in the end, love conquers all.

Maskers Theatre Company

are putting on this beautiful event in the stunning outdoor splendour of

Townhill Park House

at

The Gregg School

in Southampton.

THIS IS AN OPEN AIR PRODUCTION

Patrons are welcome to picnic in the beautiful grounds of TownHill Park House

(The Gregg School) from 6.00pm (1.00pm on Saturday 20 July for the Matinée).

Note - the Gertrude Jekyll garden will also be open for viewing but no picnics are allowed in that area.

You are advised to bring low back chairs, rugs, etc., as NO SEATING IS PROVIDED. We suggest you also bring jumpers or coats, as it can get cold even on the warmest of evenings.

The Gregg School is a private school and the grounds are not generally open to the public and there is no public access prior to the performance dates. Dates of occasional open days to view the gardens at other times can be found on the Gregg School website.

Ample free parking and toilet facilities will be provided with provision for disabled patrons. There is a short walk of approx. 100 metres to the performance area. Hot and cold drinks and snacks will be available to buy. Note: We are not licensed to sell alcohol on site, but patrons are welcome to bring their own.

No unaccompanied children under 16. No dogs (except guide dogs).
