WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

IN THE OPEN AIR

Shakespeare's timeless romantic comedy. Claudio and Hero fall head over heels in love, almost before they have spoken half a dozen words between them. Beatrice and Benedick hate each other of old. Left to themselves they would probably do unspeakable things to each other. So..... wouldn't it be satisfying if we planted ugly rumours about Hero, to ruin the wedding to Claudio? And wouldn't it be hilarious if we tricked Beatrice and Benedick into believing that each actually loved the other?

But don't worry!

Thanks to Constable Dogberry and his rustic Neighbourhood Watch team the baddies are put to flight and everything ends happily ever after.

Maskers Theatre Company

are putting on this fun production in the stunning outdoor splendour of

Townhill Park House

(The Gregg School)
in Southampton.

THIS IS PRODUCTION IS IN THE

OPEN AIR

Patrons are welcome to picnic in the beautiful grounds of Townhill Park House (The Gregg School) from 6.00pm (1.00pm on Saturday 24 July for the Matinée).

You are advised to bring low-back chairs, rugs, etc., as NO SEATING IS PROVIDED.

We suggest you also bring jumpers or coats, as it can get cold even on the warmest of evenings. Please also come prepared for our English weather, we have been known to have the occasional shower. Usually, we continue to perform unless the weather is extremely bad. Any decision to postpone a show or cancel a performance will not be made sooner than 30 mins prior to the published start time. Should we have the misfortune to have to cancel a whole show then no refunds will be given but tickets for alternative performances will be offered.

Ample free parking and toilet facilities will be provided with provision for disabled patrons. There is a short walk of approx. 100 metres to the performance area.

Hot and cold drinks and snacks will be available to buy. There will be no alcohol for sale, but you are welcome to bring your own.

The Gregg School is a private school, and the grounds are not generally open to the public. There is no public access prior to the performance dates. Dates of occasional open days to view the gardens at other times can be found on the Gregg School website.

No unaccompanied children under 16.
No dogs (except guide dogs).

COVID-19

Our FOH colleagues will be ensuring that Government guidelines and regulations applicable at the time of performance are followed for everyone's safety and enjoyment of the production. These guidelines could include the wearing of face masks and social distancing – please check and observe the latest Government guidelines.

Thank you.

Should we have to cancel a show due to a change in Government regulations we will refund your ticket price.
