OUT of FOCUS

by Peter Gordon

Fri 22 - Sat 30
October

An overbooked village hall leads to hilarious confusions! As the locals arrive for their various activities, they suddenly find themselves involved in Evonne's, the Vicar's wife, first ever pantomime. There is bossy Brownie Leader Helen trying to get her claws into delicious David. Sexy secretary Linda is threatening to derail Bob and Kath's marriage. Wayne is more concerned with finding a phone signal than remembering his cues and will anyone ever actually want to listen to one of Leonard's illustrated slide shows on steam trains, spiders or Genghis Khan? Before long it's a chaotic mix of painted sandwiches, broken wands, and an embarrassing incident in the Tesco wine aisle.

"How will they sort this mess out?!"

A warm welcome and licensed bar awaits you at our easy-to-find Studio Theatre.

Plenty of local car parks are available off Shirley High Street (no charge after 6pm).

See website for further location and parking details.
