Why is James I prancing around in Anne Boleyn's coronation dress and what is Anne up to in the woods with William Tyndale? This gripping, ghostly, ghastly tale of love, religious intrigue and political manipulation is guaranteed to keep you entertained. Howard Brenton's hilarious play, specially written for The Globe Theatre, and winner of the WhatsonStage Theatregoers Choice Best New Play Award for 2011, takes a rather 'Horrible Histories' look at the Tudors through the eyes of the Jacobean. Yes, Anne gets beheaded in the end but there are lots of laughs along the way.
