Blithe Spirit

A writer & a medium summon up a ghost...
and much laughter!

Blithe Spirit is set in the house of writer Charles Condomine and wife Ruth. He invites Madame Arcati to hold a seance along with friends for inspiration as he's writing a book. Unwittingly the ghost of his first wife Elvira is summoned up. Only Charles can see and hear her which causes all kinds of mischief between the ghostly wife and Ruth the present wife. Accidently Ruth is killed off in a car accident, now presenting Charles with two ghostly wives!

What's he going to do?

Will Madame Arcati help return Ruth and Elvira to the other side?

This wonderful English classic by Noël Coward brings an evening of joy with much laughter.

You could pop a garlic in your pocket just incase!

A warm welcome and licensed bar awaits you at our easy-to-find Studio Theatre.

Stairlift and disabled toilet facilities available.

There is no parking at the theatre but plenty of local car parks are available off Shirley High Street (no charge after 6pm).
