Educating Rita

She wanted to learn everything: he might just lose it all!

Rita is a 26-year-old hairdresser who joins an Open University course to improve her life and escape her working-class background.

She is paired with Frank, a jaded, alcoholic literature professor who has lost his passion for teaching.

Despite their differences, an unexpected bond forms as Rita's fresh perspective and determination challenges Frank's cynicism, and he helps nurture her academic growth.

As their relationship evolves, both are forced to confront personal doubts, fears, and ambitions proving that education can be a powerful force for transformation in both students and teachers.
