The Scottish Play

What price success?

Michael has long harboured an ambition to direct the Scottish Play. His brain is teeming with ideas about the staging of it, the casting and the characterisation. It is becoming an obsession.

Geraldine, stalwart, and, in her eyes at least, leading lady of The Shellsfoot Thespians, has long harboured the ambition to play Lady Macbeth...

Meanwhile, Lynn, wife of Michael, has determined to give up her affair with talented actor, Frank, and concentrate on making her marriage work.

Will any of them they get what they want?

Will they learn, with Lady Macbeth, “Naught’s had, all’s spent, Where our desire is got without content.”?

Do come and see this witty, humorous play, and find out the answers!

A warm welcome and licensed bar awaits you at our easy-to-find Studio Theatre.

Stairlift and disabled toilet facilities available.

There is no parking at the theatre but plenty of local car parks are available off Shirley High Street. Please allow sufficient time for parking.

Theatre doors open at 7pm.
